FALL TERM ENDS AFTER SIX WEEKS

Large Number of Judgments Entered and Suits Filed.

E. Rehkopf Alleges That Several Banks Exacted Usury From His Company.

NEWS FROM THE COURT HOUSE

The fall term of McCracken circuit court came to a close this morning at 11 o'clock after six weeks. Jury trials consumed a few days over three weeks.

Judgments were entered as follows: R. R. Leeper against J. W. Puckett, sale; E. C. Terrell against J. W. Puckett, sale; T. J. Dossett and others against D. G. Park, $300; Geo. Heyman against Nathan Heyman, dismissal; J. S. Summers against Arthur A. Peck, Cecil Reed, commissioner, ordered to pay $2,614.67 unconverted money to plaintiff; J. M. Worten against city of Paducah judgment against plaintiff for $229.32 for taxes. This was a suit brought to test the action of the board of supervisors and county assessor in assessing annually. Linnie A. Champion against W. F. Champion, $600 alimony; Stella M. Alvey against J. A. Alvey, divorce; Eva Caldwell against Richard Caldwell, divorce; A. J. Wintersmith against Red Cross Laundry company, sale. Attorney W. M. Oliver was fined $5 for contempt of court in failing to attend court with promptness.

Suits Filed.
Following are the suits filed today:

Myrtle Williams against Alonzo Williams, divorce. They married June 19 1906, and separated November 22, 1906. Cruelty is alleged. Two thousand dollars alimony, an attachment against property with a prayer for the possession of a horse and buggy are prayed for.

A. L. Livingston and others against J. M. Perkins and others, for debt of $254.15.

Fooks-Acree Lumber company against Ernest Wilkins and others, for debt of $114.33.

Will R. Hendricks against, Solon Gillen for $205. Gillen, it is alleged, drove a horse and buggy into Hendricks' horse and killed it August 4, at Third and Jackson streets.

Fooks-Acree Lumber company against J. L. Gollightly, for $96.67 debt.

The Rehkopf Case.
This morning more evidence was heard in the bankrupt matter of the E. Rehkopf Saddlery company. The case is being held open indefinitely by Referee E. W. Bagby, Frederick Easthope, of Norwood, representing the Campbell & Bosworth Machine company of that city, presented himself this morning before the referee.

He claimed two machines not listed in the assets of the firm. The machines do the work of 20 men, and are not sold outright but leased.

Besides the American-German National bank which he claims overcharged the concern $14,000, E. Rehkopf alleges that other banks have been guilty of usury. He cites the following not giving the percent of interest charged, merely alleging it to be over the legal 6 per cent:

City National bank; Brookport National bank, Brookport, Ill.; Bank of Commerce St. Louis; First National bank, of Jackson, Tenn.; First National bank, of Goldonda; State National bank, of Metropolis.

In Police Court.
A short session of police court was held this morning. The docket consisted of three cases, and they were disposed of in nearly as many minutes.

George Randolph and Dave Daniels, colored, $5 and costs for loitering about the Illinois Central coal chute.

Melvira Pendergraft $40 and costs for immorality, and H. A. Nichols, same charge, continued.

Says Horse Won't Work.
Mrs. Anna B. Scott today filed suit against James Estes, of the county, to recover the purchase price of a horse and annul a sale by which she became the possessor of the horse for $40, claiming him to be sound. Estes, she alleges, sold her the horse and a good worker. She declared that the animal refuses to work. The suit was filed in Magistrate C. W. Emery's court.

SELF-PROPELLING.
A self-propelling electrical wrecking outfit is the newest improvement to the Paducah Louisville, Evansville and Nashville districts of the Illinois Central. It has not been installed, but will be within ten days, and Princeton, Ky., will be headquarters. This morning Supt. A. H. Egan, of the Louisville division of the Illinois Central, was in Paducah. He stated that the wrecking outfit, which was predicted in The Sun several months ago, is under course of construction at Bay City, Mich., and will be here within ten days.
